—Lung Protectors at Thaxter's Drug Store.
—For cold feet, get a Hot Water Bag at Thaxter's.
—The poles of the Capitol electric light are up.
—The County Commissioners will meet next Monday.
—The Virginia Chronicle comes out square for free trade.
—Blumenthal & Cohn are sole agents for the Tiger Hat. *f 26 1m
—The weather seems a trifle unsettled, and more squalls are looked for.
—Kieth Bros. of Chicago manufacture the Tiger Hat. Every hat warranted. *f 26 1m —The Michigan men propose to second the APPEAL in pushing Alger for the Presidency.
—The death of Mrs. Langtry's father, Mr. Le Breton, Dean of Jersey, is announced.
—Lost—A small gold locket, containing two pictures, supposed to be two short pieces of chain attached. Leave at this office.
—A horse-hair bridle made at the State Prison is exhibited at the Capitol Restaurant. It will be raffied off at 50 cents a chance.
—The Comstocks are more active. The boom down at the Carson end of the Comstock has braced our Mr. Davidson neighbors up considerably.
—The Committee appointed by the Stock Board to look after the "Milling Trust" will do nothing out talk. You can't bust the milling trusts.
—The man who is helping to put up the electric wires and climbs the poles is a professional swimmer, having learned the perfection of the art in the Sandwich Islands.
—It was pretty strong testimony when Detective Lees testified that he found sheets of paper in Bowers' cell on which someone had been practicing Benhayon's hand writing.
—The Supreme Court of California has refused a hearing of the Sharon-Hill case to Sharon's heirs. Mrs. Terry will now proceed to move immediately on the late Senator's property.
—It is a good rule to accept only such medicines as are known to be worthy of confidence. It has been the experience of thousands that Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is the best medicine ever used for throat and lung diseases.
—Residents of Reno do not remember James Armstrong, whose body was identified by his daughter in a San Francisco dissecting-room. The S. F. Chronicle stated deceased was formerly a "wealthy Reno, Nev., prospector."

—Because the Republicans in Congress are anxious to pass some pension bills, the Democrats charge them with bidding for the soldiers' vote. The Democrats seem never able to forgive the Republican soldiers who put down the rebellion.

—Everybody needs a Spring medicine. By using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, the blood is thoroughly cleansed and invigorated, the appetite stimulated, and the system prepared to resist the diseases peculiar to the Summer months. Ask for Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Take no other.

—Roscoe Conkling now expresses a desire for Republican harmony. It would have been in a far better taste if he had practiced harmony during the Cleveland and Blaine election, in place of trying to preach it now. If Conkling were to be nominated for President, and Blaine were in the United States, the latter would undoubtedly take the stump for the former, badly as he has been treated. During all his long and loyal record in the Republican party, he has given a Roland for every Oliver.—Bee.

A FATHER'S SOLICITUDE.

He Gives His Sons Good Advice While at Lake Tahoe.

The following letter was picked up at the Grand Central Hotel, Lake Tahoe, and forwarded to this office for publication. Names, etc., are omitted, and the APPEAL apologizes in advance to the fond father who was so needlessly anxious about his boys. The letter is not printed entire, but the following extracts will suffice:

My Dear Son:—We are glad to hear of your safe arrival and that you have enjoyed the trip. We hope you will remain at Bailey's and not go to remain elsewhere. Mr. Cook tells me that there is great danger of fever at other hotels and that you must on no condition sleep on the lower floor. We have given you so many cautions against getting into or playing with boats that we need not repeat them. We trust your honor, since you promised not to go fooling round where there might be danger.

I gave your letter or postal to your darling sister. "The dear hey," she said, "how I love him, and I will write him a big letter full of love."

We miss you more than we can tell, but we believe the trip will do you much good. If you can get time write us daily. See to it that you keep your bowels regular at a fixed hour every day.

Whenever you enter a new house or change rooms see that the sheets are dry before you go to bed, and if they feel at all damp sleep between the blankets and take off the sheets. Sleep in your drawers rather than have any feeling of dampness, for it is the surest way to get cold to sleep in anything damp. Change your undershirt every night sure.

Beware of making female acquaintances, as I understand that there are good many San Francisco schoolmarms at the Lake at this season of the year, who are very designing when they meet young men away from home. Remember that at your age Satan spreads many pitfalls in the ways of the young, but we feel that your early Christian teaching at home will enable you to resist all temptation. Middle-aged or married ladies of good family I have no objection to.

We all pray for you night and morning. If Jimmy neglects his evening devotions write me at once.

If you feel at all chilly before going to bed take 1½ of the quinine pills I gave you, at once. Always go to bed warm and then you will sleep well and healthy. These cautions are good for Jimmy also.

God bless you and keep you and bring you safely to your loving home.

Syrup of Figs

Is Nature's true laxative. It is the most easily taken, and the most effective remedy known to cleanse the System when Bilious or Costive; to dispel Headaches, Colds, and Fevers; to Cure Habitual Constipation, Indigestion, Piles, etc. Manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Company, San Francisco, Cal. For sale by George C. Thaxter, agent Carson.

A Set Back.

The borers in the prospect well have received a temporary set back. In putting down the two-inch pipe they reached a point 86 feet below the surface where the three-inch casing had collapsed with the attempts to drive it through the quartz. The place will be reamed out and work resumed as soon as possible.

Prospecting in Death Valley.

The gang of men who went into Death Valley last Winter to prospect for a lost ledge have returned all right. They will take pack horses and try it again, having found an old Indian guide who agrees to pilot them to the place. They report the country full of fine ledges.

An Honest Boy.

E. B. Rail lost a $200 diamond from a ring a few days ago. Yesterday Adelard Dupuis, who was in his employ, found it in the woodshed, and on returning it was liberally rewarded.

A Small Pox Social.

They had a weird sort of dance at Sierra City, Cal., on Washington's Birthday. Previous to that holiday the following printed notices bordered in black, were posted all over the town:

"Funeral Notice—Died, at Sierra City, Cal., Feb. 22, 1888. SMALLPOX. As the disease has no friends in the town, his enemies are invited to assemble at Spencer & Moore's hall, at 8 o'clock this evening, and dance on his coffin. The funeral exercises will be under the auspices of the Bottes band, which will pipe its level best for the occasion. Tickets, $1. P. S.—The wake will continue ad libitum at the close of the dance."

That evening the people turned out en masse, and had a rip-roaring break-down in celebration of their at last being out of quarantine. The dances indulged in during the evening were the small pox polka; the virus jig; vaccination reel; and the quarantine quadrille. Thirty-five recently-recovered small pox patients participated in the festivities.

Powderly Greater than Author.

When the Knights of Labor had a railroad strike last year, Authur, Chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, allowed his men to take the places of the Knights who went on the strike. Now the engineers are on a strike, and the Knights have a grand chance to retaliate, but Powderly in a long address to them says that two wrongs do not make a right, and orders them to keep their hands off the present strike and resort to no cowardly retaliation. The fair and manly tone of the letter shows Powderly a much bigger man than Authur.

Experimenting With Fuel.

Uncle George Walker, who is of an inquiring turn of mind, is making experiments with fuel. He finds that an ordinary brick, saturated with refined coal oil or crude petroleum will burn with intense heat in an ordinary stove for an hour or more. A gallon of crude oil, which costs about 25 cents, will saturate a dozen bricks, so that the cost of keeping a small room comfortably warm for an hour does not exceed two cents.

Roller Skating.

It is said that Brooklyn has only one roller skating rink in active operation. Boston has abandoned all her once popular rinks to other purposes. Never was there a craze more utterly out of use than roller skating, and yet was a prominent feature of social life only two or three years ago. Probably its most earnest advocate of former seasons would not care now to call it to life.—Boston Journal.

A Murderer Hanged.

Hudson, N. Y., March 1.—Oscar F. Beckwith was hanged at the Court house at 10:09 this morning for the murder of Simon Vandercook at Austerlitz on the 10th of January, 1882. This case has become celebrated from the fact that the condemned man has been sentenced to death six times.

A Philanthropic Millionaire.

DAYTON, Ohio, March 1.—The venerable banker, Valentine Venter, at a family dinner today distributed half a million dollars of his estate among six children and the heirs of two others. In 1882 he gave them four hundred thousand dollars.

The Most Agreeable

As well as the most effective method of dispelling Headaches, Colds, and Fevers, or Cleansing the System, is by taking a few doses of the pleasant California liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs. For sale by Geo. C. Thaxter, agent.

Why They are Mad.

The Canadians are mad because the Fish Commissioners have allowed the American fishermen the privilege of spitting on their own bait outside the three-mile limit.—Louisville Commercial.

The Domino Party.

There was a perfect jam at the Domino party last night, and everyone who attended enjoyed the masking, the dancing and the feasting. It was also a financial success.
